

SeniorNet Manawatū Incorporated Our Privacy Statement

- We collect information for lawful purposes so we can communicate with our members. We collect information so we can ensure we are providing you with relevant courses, news about technology and invitations to events.
- We also provide demographic information to our funders, sponsors and to government agencies but this information does not include personal identification. While we appreciate this demographic information, it is not compulsory to provide it.
- We may share your contact information with our national body, The Federation of New Zealand SeniorNet Societies Inc, so that in the event of the closure of our Learning Centre, for any reason, we can keep in touch.
- We will be happy to show you whatever information we have about you on our membership files and we will endeavour to keep that information up to date at your request.

Privacy Statement The Federation of New Zealand SeniorNet Societies Inc

Our Executive Officer is our appointed Privacy Officer. Any queries about our privacy policy should be addressed to heather@seniornet.co.nz.

- Any contact information you provide to our Federation Office is collected for lawful purposes so we can communicate with you about issues related to seniors and technology. We collect information so we can ensure we are providing you with relevant courses, news about technology and invitations to events.
- We also provide demographic information to our funders, sponsors and to government agencies but this information does not include personal identification. While we appreciate this demographic information, it is not compulsory to provide it.
- We promise to keep your personal contact information securely held online. We do not collect or keep any confidential financial information related to your membership.
- We will be happy to show you whatever information we have about you in our membership files and we will endeavour to keep that information up to date at your request.